

Whistleblowing Policy

At a glance

This policy sets a framework for the principles of the whistleblowing procedure.

Who this policy applies to

This policy applies to all Volunteers with Harry's Rainbow and to members of the Board. A separate policy is available for Employees of Harry's Rainbow.

Policy status

This policy is owned by the Board of Trustees. It is non-contractual and may be updated or changed by the Board at any time. Colleagues are reminded that it is their responsibility to keep up to date with policy changes.

Statement

Harry's Rainbow recognises that effective and honest communication is essential if concerns about breaches or failures are to be effectively dealt with and success ensured.

This policy is designed to provide guidance to all those who volunteer for Harry's Rainbow.

Any person who in the public interest raises genuine concerns under this policy will not under any circumstances be subjected to any form of detriment or disadvantage as a result of having raised their concerns. The victimisation or harassment of an individual making a protected disclosure is a disciplinary offence.

Whistleblowing Policy

This policy applies where you reasonably believe that one of the following sets of circumstances is occurring, has occurred, or may occur within Harry's Rainbow and that your disclosure is in the public interest:

- a criminal offence has been committed, is being committed or is likely to be committed.
- a person has failed, is failing or is likely to fail to comply with any legal obligation to which he or she is subject.
- a miscarriage of justice has occurred, is occurring or is likely to occur.
- the health and safety of any individual has been, is being or is likely to be endangered.
- the environment has been, is being or is likely to be damaged.
- information tending to show any matter falling within any one of the preceding paragraphs has been, is being or is likely to be deliberately concealed.

It is not necessary that you prove the breach or failure that you are alleging has occurred or is likely to occur, you may simply raise a reasonable suspicion. However, you should note that you will not be protected from the consequences of making such a disclosure if, by doing so, you commit a criminal offence.

Procedure

If you believe that any of the above practices are happening in Harry's Rainbow the following procedure should be followed:

- you should initially raise the issues with your supervisor who will treat the matter in confidence.
- if it is not appropriate to raise the issues with your supervisor, you should raise the issue with the CEO (Chief Executive Officer) or, if not possible, the Chair of the Board of Trustees.

Whistleblowing Policy

- If it concerns the Chair, you must raise it with personnel@harrysrainbow.co.uk
- it is likely that an investigation will be necessary, and you may be required to attend an investigatory meeting as a witness.
- at the investigation meeting you will need to explain fully the nature and extent of what you believe is the problem. You may bring someone to help you explain the situation more clearly if you wish.

Depending on the nature of your complaint, it may not be possible to find an immediate solution, but your concerns will be investigated as quickly as is reasonably possible, and, where possible, providing such disclosure does not breach confidentiality, you will be advised of the outcome of the investigation in due course. As a minimum you will be advised when any investigation has been completed and that appropriate action has been taken, although you may not be informed of the specific details of the action that has been taken.

Where it is necessary for your disclosure and the investigative meeting minutes to be supplied to a volunteer or a member of Harry's Rainbow staff as part of the evidence supporting disciplinary action, appropriate steps will be taken to ensure that your working environment and/or working relationships are not prejudiced by the fact of the disclosure.

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of this procedure, you may raise the matter with The Board of Trustees. If you remain dissatisfied with the outcome you have the right to express your concerns to the relevant Prescribed Person designated by the Public Interest Disclosure (Prescribed Persons) Order 2014, or any statute or statutory instrument which subsequently supersedes this legislation. In this instance The Charity Commission for England and Wales. Charity Commission Tel: 0300 066 9197 Email: whistleblowing@charitycommission.gsi.gov.uk. They are concerned with the proper administration of charities in England and Wales and of funds given or held for charitable purposes in England and Wales.

If you reasonably believe that the relevant failure as listed in any of the above practices relates wholly or mainly to the conduct of a person other than someone in Harry's Rainbow, or any other matter for which a person other than Harry's Rainbow has legal responsibility, then you should make that disclosure to that other person.

Whistleblowing Policy

Also, you may make such a disclosure to Protect, the leading authority on public interest whistleblowing, if you consider that it has an interest in the matter and, despite the best efforts of Harry's Rainbow, you believe that disclosure within Harry's Rainbow is inappropriate or as noted previously has been unsuccessful. Disclosures made to legal advisors while obtaining legal advice will be protected.

If any disclosure concerns information which you do not substantially believe is true or is made in bad faith, for instance to cause disruption within Harry's Rainbow, or indeed if the disclosure is made for personal gain, then you may become subject to action under the appropriate Disciplinary Procedure, which could include Harry's Rainbow removing you as a volunteer.

While Harry's Rainbow hopes that such disclosures will never be necessary, it also recognises that it may find itself in circumstances which are new to it. Each case will be treated on its own facts.
